Join The Watch: Empowering Citizens for Freedom

Freedoms Advocate's national volunteer network, The Watch, empowers individuals to become vigilant defenders of their rights and the rights of others. We can achieve more through grassroots efforts, identifying injustices that may go unnoticed, than through courtroom battles alone. The Watch is a team of volunteers serving as our eyes and ears, attending local government meetings, reporting rights infringements, and providing support to those in need. They receive training that familiarizes them with the rights of Canadians and empowers individuals to approach officials with clarity and confidence, asserting their demands backed by the strength of our legal team and our Constitution.

We're seeking those who are willing to invest their time and energy to create a legacy of freedom for future generations. Together we can restore the foundational values that have made Canada a remarkable nation. By joining us in The Watch you'll be standing beside us as guardians of our rights and freedoms. Together, we can create the path toward a brighter, freer Canada.

Where do you start?

It starts with this application! Please complete the application and consider how you can offer your talents and skills. Once completed, email your application to info@freedomadvocate.ca and we will be in touch to set up a time to discuss further. This is a time where you can hear more about what is happening through Freedoms Advocate and our leadership can hear more about your interest in joining us to defend faith, family, and freedom.

THE TEAM APPROACH

To facilitate the growth and multiply the impact of Freedoms Advocate in Canada, The Watch volunteers will be part of a team and will be provided resources and training about constitutional laws related to defending faith, family, and freedom.

Attributes we desire in team members

Freedoms Advocate and The Watch strive to select volunteers who align with our goals and objectives. This requires coordinators and team members to be committed to:

The Watch and Freedoms Advocate

To work effectively, individuals should agree with and support the mission and values of Freedoms Advocate. We ask our volunteers to be personally committed to standing for the rights and freedoms of all Canadians.

Freedoms Advocate's Mission

To be an ethical charity devoted to representing and defending against government authorities who would threaten the liberty and constitutional freedoms of Canadians. We support and defend faith, family, and freedom.

Freedoms Advocate Values

We value freedom, integrity, faith, freedom of religion and belief, thought and expression, association and assembly, a free press, democracy, life, liberty, security, and strong families.

Integrity

As representatives of The Watch and Freedoms Advocate, volunteers serve as ambassadors of this work. Each one must implement The Watch with unquestionable integrity, knowing that their service reflects not only on The Watch and Freedoms Advocate, but also potentially in the courtroom.

Teamwork

As a group of people dedicated to holding government officials and public servants accountable, individuals may be required to function in a team setting and work with the management of Freedoms Advocate. It is vital for all to respect the leadership in place. We look for team members willing to work with people from all walks of Canadian culture.

Empowering Others

Individuals should possess strong interpersonal skills, be able to enjoy and rejoice in the success of others and inspire and motivate others to serve in the work of The Watch. Caring for others, groups, and individuals who participate in The Watch is essential to the success of this team. Team members and leaders should remain open and sensitive to the needs of other volunteers and participants, encouraging them to strive to achieve these goals and objectives of The Watch.
